»Holding on«

Choreography, Dance, Music: Israel Akpan Sunday
Duration: 25 min.

“Holding on” is a work in progress showing which evolved from an artistic and philosophical research residency. Within this residency, Israel experimented and researched around the topic of the technical, physical, and societal act of falling as a potential concept of migration. He also searched for connections between the act of falling and the fear of the unknown.

„We are all prisoners here in our own devices, we have money for war, but yet can't feed the poor. We just like the gambler that tries to win back his money...When we feel strong and well, it is easy to forget about our own frailties and also the misfortunes, troubles, and sicknesses of others. We are only strong as is our compassion for those who are weak. For in strength must come the power of understanding and the wisdom to act with gentleness and kind concern for those who are not able to help themselves... Look around you.“

Israel Akpan Sunday works as a choreographer, dancer and musician between Hamburg and Lagos. His works are political and challenging, as well as poetic and sensual. His performance style is characterized by a fusion of everyday movements and behaviors with contemporary dance, as well as the constant incorporation of live music. www.israelakpan.com
